

CPE Rules Transition

Single-Year CPE Reporting Table

OLD and NEW

The yearly minimum remains at 20 hours.

Non-residents requesting exemption from CPE reporting must make that request yearly by no later than December 31.

OLD YEARLY TABLE
	Approved	Self-Study	Non-Approved
General
Ethics
Personal Dev
Teaching
Writing

A mix of sponsor types and delivery methods

A mix of fields of study and delivery methods

NEW YEARLY TABLE
Course Hours from APPROVED Sponsors
Type of Learning	Technical Learning Activities		Non-Technical Learning Activities		Total
	General	Regulatory Ethics	General	Behavioral Ethics
Group Learning
Self-Study
Teaching
Writing
Nano Learning
Blended Learning
Independent Study
Course Hours from NON-Approved Sponsors
Type of Learning	Technical Learning Activities		Non-Technical Learning Activities		Total
	General	Regulatory Ethics	General	Behavioral Ethics
Group Learning
Teaching
Writing
Independent Study

Sponsor types delineated

Approved vs. Non-Approved CPE are separated, with only the accepted delivery methods for that sponsor type listed.

Fields of study categories delineated

Separate sections provided for technical vs. non-technical, and those are further subdivided as "Ethics" and "General" (everything other than ethics).

CPE Rules Transition

Three-Year CPE Requirements Summary, OLD vs NEW

OLD THREE-YEAR REQUIREMENTS
Approved/Self-Study		Min 72	Non-Teaching		Min 60
Ethics		Min 8	Non-Writing		Min 60
Non-Self Study		Min 24
Non-Personal Dev		Min 96	3-Year Total CPE		Min 120

NEW THREE-YEAR REQUIREMENTS
Approved		Min 72	Teaching		Max 60
Ethics		Min 8	Writing		Max 60
Group/Blended		Min 24
Technical		Min 60	Total		Min 120

Same Ethics requirement
Any combination of 8 behavioral or regulatory ethics

Same Approved credit minimum requirement

Approved hours include all courses meeting the requirements of MN Rule 1105.3100, subpart 1, which now includes self-study, blended learning and nano-learning programs offered by NASBA Registry sponsors approved for those delivery methods

Reduced requirement, but essentially the same type of coursework, just expressed in the positive vs. negative and using new terminology

Same requirement, just now expressed in the positive vs. negative and using new terminology and including a new delivering method (blended learning)

Same Writing and Teaching limits, just now expressed in the positive vs. negative

Same 3-Year Total requirement (The yearly minimum remains 20 hours)

NOTE: Your total will only reflect qualifying hours. For instance, if you reported 122 hours, but 62 were teaching, your total would show 120 hours.