

OFFICIAL PUBLICATION OF THE MINNESOTA BOARD OF ACCOUNTANCY

THE BOARD REPORT

Spring/Summer 2014

Message from the Board Chair

Robert P. Saunders, CPA, CFP
Saunders, Mertens & Schmitz, PA

Greetings from the new Board Chair. In my first article, I want to touch on several topics.

1. Effective the 28th of April the new rules have been issued. These rules codify the legislation from the 2012-2013 session. As professionals, it is now our duty to read, understand, and apply all the rules of Chapter 1105. Please print/review a copy of the rules from the Board's website. We need to understand not only the rules, but also the "incorporated by reference materials" of Part 1105.0250. The Minnesota Society of CPAs (MNCPA) and the Minnesota Association of Public Accountants (MAPA), through the Footnote and MAPAN, are helping the Board to communicate the major changes to the rules. We greatly appreciate their assistance in this endeavor. That said, it is still the responsibility of each licensee to read and understand the rules under which we practice.

2. Congratulations to Sharon Jensen who was appointed by the Governor to her second term on the Board. In addition to serving on the Board's Executive Committee, she has been representing Minnesota on two National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) committees giving the Board insight to regulatory issues across the United States, allowing the Board to be proactive in the regulatory environment.

3. I would also like to thank John Edson, outgoing chair of the Quality Review Oversight Committee (QROC), and John Arlandson, member of the QROC, for their service in providing valuable oversight of the peer review processes of MAPA and the MNCPA. We are in need of three new members for the QROC. If you have peer review experience and want to give back to the profession, please contact the Board office or your professional association.

Finally, I would like to send a BZ (Bravo Zulu) to the staff of the Board of Accountancy who do so much to help protect our profession. The scope and quality of oversight of the profession is always changing and expanding and they keep the Board ahead of the curve.

Did You Know?

The Board's website has a variety of useful tools and information. You can look up the license status of CPAs and CPA firms, change your address, file a complaint, obtain application information and find updates on Board statutes and rules and Board meeting information. Bookmark the Board's website and visit often!

New Rules in Effect

The Board's Notice of Adoption of rules regarding license renewal, firm registration, continuing professional education and housekeeping updates was published in the State Register on April 21, 2014. The rules were effective April 28, 2014.

What does this mean for you?

The three-year renewal cycle will be phased out. When your current license expires (either in 2014, 2015 or 2016), your license will be renewed for one year.

The July 31 Continuing Professional Education reporting deadline has been removed. Continuing education must be completed by June 30 and must be reported by December 31 each year.

Continuing education requirements are clarified, but the actual requirements have not changed. Within a rolling three-year period, you must complete a minimum of 120 hours of CPE, with a minimum of 20 hours per year and 8 hours of ethics training. Of those 120 hours, at least 24 must be from instructor-led programs and 72 hours must be from Board-approved sponsors.

CPA firms may use a common brand name or network name as its firm name if the firm meets certain requirements. The use of a common brand name or network name is not misleading. Firms may not use its name until it has been registered with and approved by the Board.

Misleading and fictitious firm names have been defined.

To read the Board's adopted rules, please visit the website at www.boa.state.mn.us.

News from the Internal Revenue Service

By Carole Smith, Stakeholder Liaison, IRS

Virtual Currencies

The Internal Revenue Service has issued guidance on the tax treatment of transactions using virtual currencies, such as Bitcoins or other similar currencies.

The sale or other exchange of virtual currencies, or the use of virtual currencies to pay for goods or services, or holding virtual currencies as an investment, generally has tax consequences that could result in tax liability. This guidance applies to individuals and businesses that use virtual currencies.

See Notice 2014-21 for more information.

What is a CAF number?

A CAF number is a unique nine-digit identification number and is assigned the first time you file a third party authorization with IRS. A letter is sent to you informing you of your assigned CAF number. Use your assigned CAF number on all future authorizations.

CAF numbers are different from the third party's TIN (Taxpayer Identification Number), EIN (Employer Identification Number) or PTIN (Preparer Identification Number). CAF numbers may be assigned to an individual or a business entity.

If you are a tax professional and cannot remember your CAF number, you may call the Practitioner Priority Service, otherwise known as PPS. PPS may be reached at (866) 860-4259. Once you provide your authenticating information, they can verbally give it to you over the phone. If PPS is unable to authenticate you as the owner of the CAF number then PPS will mail the number to the CAF address of record.

Do you know the proper way to complete a Form 2848 when your client is a LLC? See irs.gov for more information, www.irs.gov/uac/Powers-of-Attorney-for-LLCs.

TDS No Longer Processing Transcript Requests for ID Theft Victims

To help better protect taxpayer information, the IRS will no longer process transcript requests through the Transcript Delivery System if an Identity Theft Indicator is on the taxpayer's account. A taxpayer, instead, will receive a notice alerting him or her of any request for the transcript and instruct the taxpayer to contact the Identity Protection Specialized Unit at 1-800-908-4490. Once proper authentication has been performed, the IRS will issue a transcript directly to the taxpayer.

Automatic Extension of Time for Estates Without a Filing Requirement

Revenue Procedure 2014-18 provides an automatic extension of time for certain estates without a filing requirement to elect portability of the decedent's unused exclusion amount for the benefit of the decedent's surviving spouse. No user fee is required for submissions filed under this revenue procedure.
